Property Description

A great option for a group of four looking to base themselves close to Liverpool's main university campuses, this student house on Adelaide Road combines a practical four-bedroom layout with a strong Kensington Fields location.
The property offers four furnished bedrooms alongside a comfortable communal lounge with dining space, giving housemates somewhere separate to relax and socialise. There is also a fitted kitchen with appliances and one bathroom.
Kensington Fields remains a particularly convenient base for student life, putting lectures, shopping and the city centre within easy reach while still offering plenty of everyday essentials closer to home.
At £147 per person, per week, this is a well-positioned four-bedroom option for a group wanting to live together within Liverpool's established L7 student area.

Local Area & Hotspots
The location is a major part of the appeal. University of Liverpool and Liverpool John Moores University campuses are both well placed from Adelaide Road, while the city centre is easily accessible for shopping, nightlife and wider student life.
For day-to-day essentials, Lidl on Kensington provides convenient supermarket shopping nearby. Jubilee Sports Bank is also based locally on Jubilee Drive, while Kensington itself provides a useful mix of cafés, takeaways, shops and other everyday amenities.

£50.00 Holding deposit is applicable to reserve the property (this is deducted from the first months rent payment)
