Situation

Fall in love with your new home - fantastic semi-detached property, situated off Roman Road to the left behind the Garden Centre in a quiet cul de sac.

This lovely property features 2 double bedrooms, gardens and driveway. Close to the motorway, hospital and also bus routes are close by and is convenient for both Blackburn and Darwen centres.

Approaching the property you can see it has a garden to the front and its own driveway, and you will see from the pictures, it is very well presented and in a lovely quiet area.

Living Room Area is a good space with marble fireplace and modern electric fire, The carpets are new and in brown, decorating is neutral with a feature wall. There are wall lights to the left as well as the main light fitting. An under stairs storage cupboard is also accessible from the lounge. From the lounge you enter the Kitchen/Diner, again another good space with plenty of cupboards and worktop space, room for your washing machine fridge freezer and dryer, The kitchen also has a breakfast bar, walk-in store cupboard, and double patio doors leading to the rear garden which benefits from a lawned area, tarmac hard standing, and a flagged patio area. It is fully enclosed and plenty of room for a shed or those family and friends round for a bbq .There is a gate for access to the side and front of the property from the garden. The garden is not overlooked so you have privacy.

To the first floor there are two double bedrooms, one single and family bathroom. With 3 piece bathroom suite in white, Cupboard fitted to the wall for product storage. Shower over bath with a glass panel.

Strictly no smokers. A deposit equivalent to 5 weeks rent is required, plus one months rent payable up front.
