Property Description

A four-bedroom, fully furnished student townhouse with two bathrooms, available from 1st July 2027 in Markden Mews – a strong option for a group of four wanting plenty of space in a well-connected Liverpool student location.

Priced at £170 per person, per week with bills included, the property combines the practicality of a townhouse with a manageable four-person layout. Having two bathrooms between four bedrooms is another major plus for a shared student home.

Markden Mews sits within the Georgian Quarter area, well positioned for the University of Liverpool and Knowledge Quarter, while the shops and everyday essentials around Myrtle Street are also conveniently accessible.

For nights out, coffee stops and eating out, the location gives you easy access to Hope Street and Bold Street, with Liverpool city centre and the Baltic Triangle also within the wider area. It's a great base for a group wanting university, everyday amenities and city-centre life all close at hand.

Local Area & Hotspots

The University of Liverpool and Knowledge Quarter are key advantages of the location, while Myrtle Street provides useful everyday shopping options. Hope Street brings together cafés, restaurants and some of the Georgian Quarter’s best-known venues, with Bold Street adding a huge choice of independent food spots and shops. The Baltic Triangle is another popular destination within the wider city-centre area for food, music and events.

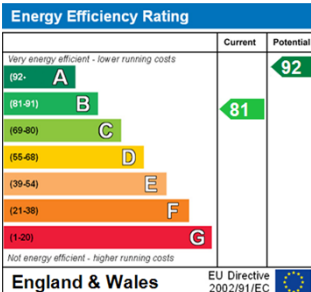

£50.00 Holding deposit is applicable to reserve the property (this is deducted from the first months rent payment)
