Property Description

Getting the right balance of bedrooms and shared space matters when five of you are living together, and this property delivers a practical setup for a full student group. The house offers five bedrooms alongside a spacious communal living area, giving everyone their own space while still providing somewhere to properly switch off and spend time together. Two bathrooms are another important advantage for a five-person household, making those busy weekday mornings considerably easier.

Jubilee Drive also puts you in a strong position for student life. Set within Kensington Fields, the property is conveniently placed for both the University of Liverpool and LJMU, while Liverpool city centre is also easily accessible. It's a straightforward proposition for a group of five: plenty of room to share, two bathrooms and a location that keeps university and the city within easy reach.

Local Area & Hotspots

Kensington Fields is an established student neighbourhood particularly well positioned for Liverpool's Knowledge Quarter. University of Liverpool and LJMU campuses are easily accessible from the area, while Edge Hill station provides a useful local rail connection. The surrounding Kensington area also offers supermarkets, shops, takeaways and everyday essentials, with straightforward connections into Liverpool city centre.

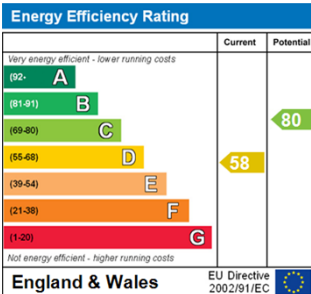

£50.00 Holding deposit is applicable to reserve the property (this is deducted from the first months rent payment)
