a Beautifully presented TWO DOUBLE BEDROOM COTTAGE, offering an attractive blend of original character and modern fittings, ideally located in the sought-after village of Queniborough.

The accommodation comprises a welcoming main reception room, leading through to a spacious kitchen fitted with integrated fridge and freezer, washing machine, and a large double oven. A further door provides access to a generous rear garden, which also benefits from an additional outbuilding, ideal for use as a utility space or home office—as well as a large shed for extra storage.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a fitted family bathroom.

This charming property offers both character and practicality, and is not one to be missed.

Available end of May.
