Situation

A well-located one-bedroom basement flat situated close to Doncaster town centre, offering convenient access to a wide range of local amenities, transport links and employment opportunities.

The property benefits from a comfortable living space, a well-appointed kitchen, bathroom facilities and a private bedroom. A particularly useful feature is the gated off-street parking to the rear, providing secure parking in a central location.

Ideally positioned for access to Doncaster town centre, the property is within easy reach of Doncaster Train Station, providing excellent rail connections, as well as local shops, restaurants, bars and other amenities. Doncaster Royal Infirmary is also located very close by, making the property particularly convenient for hospital staff and those requiring easy access to the hospital.

An excellent opportunity for a tenant seeking convenient town-centre living with the added benefit of private parking.
