The property has been recently renovated including new flooring and redecoration throughout. One of the most enticing things about the apartment is the wonderful private balcony overlooking fields and woodland that brings a sense of tranquility to the property. The contemporary kitchen is fitted with everything you could need including dishwasher, washing machine, fridge freezer, oven and hob. The generous master bedroom has an en suite shower room and the main bathroom is more than ample size with a full sized bath. The second bedroom is also of very generous proportions. The large lounge has double aspect windows as well as French doors out to the balcony. There is also plenty of storage space in the apartment with a large store room just off the entrance.

The locality speaks for itself
